

Claire Megson

I'm a parent governor and currently have one child at St Thomas'. I enjoy being an active part of school life and also am an active member of the school PTA. I'm on the curriculum committee and I am the Special Educational Needs link governor which links well with my job as a Speech and Language Therapist for primary aged children.