

Hello!

My name is Alex Thornhill and I am an Emotional Wellbeing Worker from the Stockport Mental Health Support Team. I come to St Thomas' on a Friday and work with the school to support the children's mental health and wellbeing.

Working with children is the best part of my job. I love educating young people about mental health and giving them the tools to cope with any difficulties they come up against in the future.